FOUNDATION GUIDELINES

Nexion Health Foundation was established in 2004 to make financial contributions to eligible organizations for a variety of charitable purposes. The Foundation primarily supports non-profit, charitable organizations that promote and support the health and well-being of the elderly and disabled citizens of the communities served by Nexion Health affiliate facilities. In addition, the Foundation makes financial contributions that support the educational, social, civic and humanitarian goals of eligible Nexion Associates and their immediate family members.

Eligibility Requirements

- Nexion Associates are eligible to participate in the Emergency Relief program upon their first day of employment.
- Nexion Associates are considered eligible to participate in the One 4 One and Volunteer Plus programs on the first of the month following 90 days of consecutive full-time employment.
- Immediate family members of eligible Associates are eligible for certain Foundation programs.
- Foundation contributions to charitable organizations via the One 4 One and Volunteer Plus programs will be made in the form of a check payable directly to the organization.
- Charitable organizations must provide a copy of the IRS Federal Tax Exemption Determination Letter that validates their 501(c)(3) status.
- The Foundation reserves the right to limit annual contributions made to any one charitable organization.
- With the exception of funds distributed through the Emergency Relief Program, the Foundation will not make contributions directly to individuals.
- Foundation Board Members and their families are not eligible to participate in Foundation programs.
